MYERS AGAIN ON THE WAR PATH

Richmond Delegate Uses Caustic Language Concerning Christian.

DEMANDS PROBING.

One Lawmaker Asks "Why Didn't You Shoot Him?"—Thrilling Scenes in House of Delegates.

Richmond, March 6.—Following the introduction from Delegate Willis, of Roanoke city, calling for an investigation of the Myers-Christian incident Wednesday, Captain Myers took the floor on a question of personal privilege, and, in an impassioned address, demanded as a member of the House, an investigation.

"I was grossly insulted Wednesday by Dr. Christian," said Delegate Myers, "and had he not been an ordained minister I should have knocked him down where he stood, and not risen Wednesday to address the House.

"That man, who is known as a revered minister of the gospel, in discussing brothels, asked me if I would care to furnish my wife or my child, or my sister for such an establishment."

"Why didn't you shoot him?" cried a voice in the far rear of the hall.

"Because he was a minister," replied Myers.

Alluding to the Rev. Dr. Christian, Myers said: "If he had in him the evidence of manhood or o fChristianity which his cloak would indicate, he would have apologized to me for his statement in the papers Wednesday, which statement was utterly false.

"I stand here as a man—a man who has tried to lead a clean life—and I say to you that either I have been guilty o fa falsehood,or Dr. Christian has published a falsehood over his signature.

"I demand at your hands an investigation. My honor as a member and my honesty as a man have been attacked.

"If you find me guilty upon investigation, say so and no more, but you are in honor bound to grant me the justice of an investigation.' '

Montague, of Richmond, and Gordon, of Louisa, moved that the Willis resolution be referred to the committee on privileges and elections. This was done.

Robertson, of Northampton, addressed the chair and said:

"I know from observation that we have an iniquitous and outrageous lobby, which should be driven from the capitol."

This closed the discussion of the Incident and the house got down to work.

"Whereas, it has come to the attention of this body that some person has, within the lobby of the hall of the House of Delegates, attempted to influence the vote of a member of this body by statements as to the effect on the private business and political future of such member, should he vote contrary to the desires of such person: and

"Whereas, it is the sense of this body that every member should vote as his own best judgment dictates to him, that the interests of the state require, rather than in accord with the private business interests or political benefit of such member; therefore be it

"Resolved, That this body condemns such methods of attempting to influence the actions of members of the General Assembly, and further that, hereafter, if the speaker of this house is satisfied that any person is using such methods that the Speaker shall direct the Sergeant-at-Arms to prohibit such person from appearing in the hall or lobby of this House.

As the House was about to adjourn yesterday afternoon, Judge Martin Williams, chairman of the committee on Privileges and Elections, to which had been referred the Willis resolution calling for a legislative investigation of the Myers-Christian clash in the lobby, requested that his committee be permitted to take up its consideration of the affair next Monday morning during the open session of the House. This request was granted and means that the House will resolve itself into a committee of the whole before which the lobbying charges against the Rev. Dr. W. Asbury Christian, as preferred twice upon the open floor by Delegate Myers, will be gone into.

At a called meeting of the by_county W. C. T. U. yesterday the following resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, The W. C. T. U. stands for all good and pure with our race against sin and vices of all kinds—heartily endorse the action of our brother, Rev. Asbury W. Christian, has taken in the defense of the pure womanhood not only of Richmond but the entire state, we deplore the fact that we have in our midst a man who is supposed to represent the people who so far forgot himself and womankind as to be willing to lend his influence to degrade and ruin them.

"Therefore, be it resolved, That we most heartily will assist our brother, Rev. Asbury Christian, in his efforts to suppress vice and pray the Father to give him strength to bear the unjust criticisms and persecutions thrust upon him by an emissary of the evil one. We, as members of the W. C. T. U., do not feel that Mr. Myers represents the opinions of the delegates from our city who will stand for the betterment of our city and state.

"Committee: Mrs. W. M. Bickers president; Mrs. A. G. Quarles, Mrs D. M. Burgess, Mrs. Ella B. Wood Mrs. W L Bailes, Mrs. Harry Danner. Mrs. Hortense Ropp, of Page county."

WEST VIRGINIA EXPLAINS STAND

Offer in Debt Case Does Not Deviate From Opinion of Court.

MASON'S STATEMENT.

Members of Virginia Commission Not Worried by New Turn The Proceedings Have Taken.

Washington, March 6.—Apparently nonplused by the lack of serious consideration with which the Virginia debt commissioners treated the offer made by the West Virginians of $2,327,195.28, as payment in full for the claim made by Virginia for approximately $7,000,000 and interest for fifty years, Chairman Mason, of the West Virginia Commission, has issued a statement regarding the negotiations, explaining the proposition, and stating that the refusal of the Virginians to discuss the offer necessarily terminated further negotiations.

Chairman Moon, of the Virginia Commission, made no comment on the statement, ignoring it entirely. The Virginia Commission takes the position that the Supreme Court has ordered the payment by West Virginia of the original debt, and left open for negotiation only the matter of interest. On the other hand, the West Virginia Commission contends that the court's decision was rendered upon the supposition that Virginia had no assets on hand to offset the debt, whereas they have discovered records showing there were many millions of assets.

It was made plain that the West Virginians have been at work several months collecting data regarding these assets, to be presented to the Supreme Court on April 13, with a view to obtaining a reopening of the entire case.

Chairman Mason's statement was as follows:

"The West Virginia Commission has not deviated from the opinion of the Supreme Court in arriving at the conclusions upon which its proposition to Virginia, looking to a settlement of the Virginia debt controversy, is based. There seems to be some misunderstanding as to the position taken by West Virginia in relation to the opinion of the court. The statement has been made that West Virginia ignored such opinion.

"On the contrary, it has accepted the opinion of the court as the basis of settlement, and it presented to the Virginia Commission certain equities which West Virginia believes it is entitled to offset against the amount fixed by the court as its proportion of the principal debt, and filed with the Virginia Commission a full and complete list of the items so far discovered aggregating many millions of dollars, 23 1-2 per cent of which, in keeping with the Supreme Court opinion, belongs to the State of West Virginia. The Virginia Commission refused to discuss any of these matters, and thereby necessarily terminated negotiations.

"It seems that Virginia has no financial interest in the question, since by her refunding acts she has assigned to her creditors what ever claim she might be able to sustain against West Virginia.

"The court in its decision of March 6, 1911, in fixing the basis of West Virginia's liability, said: "It does not appear that there are any stocks of value on hand; but the commission created by the Legislature of West Virginia in 1913 has discovered stocks aggregating many millions of dollars in value, purchased with the proceeds of the very bonds constituting the debt in question, and if charged with 23 1-2 per cent of this debt, she ought to receive 23 1-2 per cent of the securities purchased therewith."

Richmond, March 6.—Members of the Virginia Debt Commission, who have returned from the conference in Washington on Wednesday with the West Virginia Commission, are not disposed to seriously consider the counterclaim for indemnity made by West Virginia. They declare that the information on which the West Virginia Commission based its unexpected proposal has been in the hands of the representatives of that State since the argument before the master named by the United States Supreme Court. They do not think that the "discoveries" just announced by the West Virginia Commission will have weight enough on April 13 to cause the Supreme Court to reopen the litigation.

TO JOIN CRUSADE.

Baptist Laymen Will Support Prohibition Movement.

Richmond, March 6.—Support to the organized temperance forces of the State in the fight for the elimination of the saloon, was pledged last night by the Virginia Baptist Laymen's Missionary Convention at its final session in First Baptist Church, on the ground that the open saloon is one of the greatest obstacles to the progress of the missionary movement in the State were unanimously indorsed.

With the session last night the convention closed. More than 500 registered delegates were here from out of town, while as many more local delegates, were present at the meetings. For the first time in the history of the State, representatives from the twenty-nine district associations in Virginia were assembled together at one time.

E. T. Fenwick, of Falls Church, was the presiding officer at the opening meeting yesterday, and he gave a talk on "Business in Religion." He was followed by Professor R. E. Gaines, of Richmond College, and secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, who explained the workings of the "Every Member Canvass for Weekly Contributions."

At the afternoon session, J. M. C. Duke, of Portsmouth, the presiding officer, spoke on the "Loyal Layman." Then followed a discussion of practical problems conducted by E. L. Stone, of Roanoke; W. H. Nickels, of Gate City; B. F. Moomaw, of Roanoke, and President F. W. Boatwright, of Richmond College.

The most important business taken up by the convention was the adoption of resolutions offered by a committee composed of J. T. Henderson, E. T. Fenwick, and J. W. Cammack. The paper acknowledged the various courtesies extended the convention, and then went into a number of recommendations, all of which were adopted without a dissenting voice.

The committee recommended that annual conferences of pastors be held, and that specialists be invited to instruct them in practical methods and suggestions. It also recommended the appointment by each district association of a committee of three to co-operate with the executive committete of the movement for the purpose of welding the churches into compact groups and to locate efficient pastors in these fields. The proposed committee is also to be charged with the duty of enlisting the interest of laymen in missionary work and to introduce more effective methods of missionary education and finances. Each church is also requested to appoint a committee of three laymen to work along the same line.

At the final session last night, Dr. B. D. Gray was the principal speaker. He took as his subject, "America, a World Force." Other addresses were made by George O. Greene, of Clifton Forge, the presiding officer; Hunter Miller, of Bedford City, and J. C. Cox, principal of the Oak Ridge Academy, a mountain mission school.

Suicide For Trivial Cause.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 6.—Angry because his father would not let him have the use of a team, Antonio de Falco, 27 years old, committed suicide at his home in Dunbarton, Camden county, Wednesday evening. Following words with his father, Joseph de Falco, at the latter's store. Antonio walked over to his own home, and in the yard sent a bullet through his brain, dying instantly. Because the wires are still down, word of the suicide did not reach Camden until yesterday,when Coroner Schroeder viewed the body. A wife and four children survive.

GEN. FELIX DIAZ WANTS TO BE HEARD

Would Tell His Story to Foreign Relations Committee of Congress.

ASKS MORAL SUPPORT.

Former Mexican Army Leader Has Plan to Unhorse Huerta—In Need of Financial Aid.

Washington, March 6.—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee will grant a hearing to Felix Diaz, the exiled Mexican general, here to plead his cause with the committee.

Senator Shively, acting chairman of the committee takes the position the committee is seeking information and will hear Diaz if he desires to be heard.

The purpose of the mission of Diaz is well understood. He is seeking to gain the moral support of Washington in a movement by which he contemplates gaining control in Mexico.

Diaz has powerful friends in the army and assurance of financial backing. He believes if he could be assured of the moral backing of the United States he could overthrow Huerta and restore peace in Mexico.

Senators have no intention of giving Diaz any asurances. Most of them, however, are willing to hear what he has to say. Senator William Alden Smith is opposed to it.

Diaz came here in response to the requests of his agents, Pedro Del Vilar and Cecilio Ocon, who were before the committee earlier in the week.

Mexico City, March 6.—General Victoriana Huerta is planing to leave here within a month, to go to the front at the head of the main body of federals.

"I shall leave the government in other hands," said he today. "I am sure the United States will be pleased with that arrangement.' '

Another indication that the dictator is preparing to conciliate the United States by selecting a successor acceptable to President Wilson, was given by his appointment of San Jose De Portillo y Rojas as foreign minister in place of Querido Moheno.

Rojas has not been allied with the Huerta party and is friendly to the United States. It is rumored in diplomatic circles in the capital that Rojas will be named provisional president when the present ruler starts forth to vanquish the rebel forces in the north.

"Quit Bridge For Bible."

Philadelphia, Pa., March 6.—In an address at the Garrick Theatre, Bishop Charles P. Anderson, of the Episcopal Doicese of Chicago, said:

"It is time to get back to first principles. We should again start to tell our children the old Bible stories and to take them on our knees and teach them how to pray. I am afraid the knees of many of you mothers are where your children cannot get at them—under the bridge tables."

Bishop Anderson said churches are neglecting to safeguard marriages as they should. They are making common, he said, what God has cleansed.

Clark Will be 64 Years old Tomorrow.

Washington, March 6. — Champ Clark, speaker of the House, will be 64 years old tomorrow. The speaker is one of the most active members of Congress.

The speakership to which he was elected in the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses, is the crowning feature of a public career of two-score years, marked with many distinctions.

The speaker takes great pride in the fact that when he was chosen head of Marshall College, West Virginia, at the age of twenty-three, he was the youngest college president in America.

KELLY'S ARMY ROUTED.

2,000 Unemployed, Marching to Washington, Halted by Police at Oakland, Cal.

Oakland, Cal., March 6.—"General" Kelly's band of 2,000 unemployed men, which started from San Francisco Tuesday to march to the national capital, was routed here yesterday by 250 policemen armed with rifles.

The entire band was put aboard street cars and shipped to Richmond, a nearby town. No resistance was offered, the men ignoring Kelly's plea that they give battle to the police.

At Richmond, however, the travelers immediately began a riot, attempting to demolish a large wooden storage building.

Policemen dispersed them by a liberal use of clubs and arrested several alleged ringleaders.

PASSAGE OF THE PRIMARY BILL

Senate Rejects Two Amendments Urged by Secretary Bryan.

ELECTION SAME DAY.

All Fraudulent Acts at Primaries to be Punishable—Reduces Entrance Fee Five Per Cent.

Richmond, Va., March 6.—The Senate adopted the Holt primary bill by a vote of 36 to 2 last night. About a score of amendments were offered, but were voted down. Among the amendments defeated were two advocated by Secretary of State Bryan in his address here Saturday night—the mandatory primary, which was defeated, 34 to 4, and that providing for the Presidential primary, defeated by a vote of 19 to 18.

The minority, led by Senator Featherstone, got through one amendment, declaring it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or imprisonment for any person to commit a fraudulent act in connection with a primary election. The vote was 18 to 18 and Lieutenant-Governor Ellison cast the winning vote for the amendment.

The bill requires primary elections to be held on the same day throughout the State, the primary for the regular November elections on the first Tuesday in August preceding the election and the primary for the July city and town elections on the first Tuesday in April preceding.

Reduces the present entrance fee from 5 per cent, of the first year's salary of the office to which the candidate aspires.

Provides separate sets of primary election judges in all cases where two or more parties hold primary elections at the same time, to be appointed by the party authorities.

Gives the local electoral boards the right to require a majority instead of a mere minority vote for any one candidate before such a candidate shall be declared the nominee of his party, and leaves all contests to be decided by the courts.

Requires the State Board of Canvassers to canvass the returns of primary elections and makes the Secretary of the Commonwealth the custodian of primary election returns.

DEATH OF LITTLE GIRL.

Margaret R. Kell, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Kell of No. 5, City Road, just beyond the city limits, died at the Alexandria Hospital yesterday from the effects of lye which she drank. Her mother had left the house for a few minutes and the little girl found a can of lye which she mixed with water and drank. She was hurried to the hospital where she was treated by Dr. E. A. Gorman, but never regained consciousness.

GROWING EVERY DAY.

Every day sees a steady growth in the grocery business of Howard and Bros., at 822 King street. Their list of customers is increasing, and they are able to purchase in larger quantities. Buying goods for cash means that they save all discounts and are able to give better prices to their customers. Few businesses ever established in Alexandria have shown such a phenomenal increase. Howard sells for cash only and only sells the very best of groceries and vegetables. See their advertisement in today's Gazette and start saving money by buying from them at once.

FIND HIDDEN HOARD.

Miser's $17,000 Under Joists, and $30,000 Missing.

Lancaster, Pa., March 6.—Jefferson Miller had no faith in banks after the failure of the City Trust Company here, in which he had $40,000. He died a miser a week ago; was unmarried, and his only relatives are cousins.

Since his death search has been made for money he is known to have had. Today searchers found in the cellar of a business building in which he had an interest, $17,000 in bonds and cash. These were in cigar boxes and small bags,and secreted in a receptacle he had made under the joists of the building.

There is still more than $30,000 unaccounted for, and it may never be found.

SCHULTZ MURDER CASE

Tonight Fifth Anniversary of Killing of Chicagoan in Alexandria

Five years ago tonight, the body of Walter J. Schultz, was found between the steam and electric railway tracks, near Rosemont station, on the confines of Alexandria. A ghastly wound, made with a knife was on the left side of the neck. The remains were taken to W. Demaine's & Son's undertaking establishment when the authorities began an investigation. It was ascertained that the unfortunate man was a native of Chicago, that he had visited Washington to witness the inaugural ceremonies of William H. Taft and had later come to this city. A gold watch was found on his person, some money and money orders. That he had been brutally murdered was evident, but whether he had met his fate in Alexandria and his body carried to the spot where found, or whether he had been led out of the city and killed, was unknown.

The community was greatly aroused and the police went to work on the case with a will. The body was found early Sunday morning, March 7, but the murder had evidently been committed the preceding Saturday night.

There was at that time a negro named Henry Smith, in this city. He had been a patron of the police court at one time having been charged with "raising" a United States Treasury note and at other times with defrauding residents of this city, while pretending to be a repairer of furniture. The eyes of the police were on this darkey, and the officers having become acquainted with his movements on the night of the murder and on the Sunday following, he was arrested on the charge of stealing a watch. Smith was far above the average negro in cunning, and he manifested greatest anxiety when taken in custody than would have followed a charge of larceny, and the police became more convinced that he was either responsible for Schultz's death or was acquainted with the facts in connection with it.

While confined in a cell at the station house he was nervous, and gave evidence that he was suffering from some terrible pangs of conscience or fear of the electric chair, and after hours of mental horror he notified the officers that he had something to impart. He thereupon told a story the object of which was to exculpate himself, but to place Schultz's murder upon three well-known negroes—Richard Pines, Calvin Johnson and Eugene Dorsey.

Smith told a remarkable story to the effect that on the preceding Saturday night he encountered the trio mentioned at the mouth of an alley on the north side of Cameron street, between Payne and West, in which they had placed Schultz, that Pines compelled him at the point of a pistol to become one of the party, and that Johnson and Dorsey picked up Schultz who seemed to be dazed, and carried him to the spot where the body was found when Dorsey deliberately cut his victim's throat, took the money from his pocket, divided it with Pines and Johnson who then left towards different points of the compass.

Smith told the same story without any variation, in the Police Court next morning, before the coroner's jury and on other occasions before the Corporation Court.

His alleged companions had in the meantime been arrested, and although they positively denied the charges made by Smith, they failed to establish alabis and other suspicious circumstances, which they could not explain away, caused the juries in each case to bring in verdicts of murder in the first degree.

Smith was, of course, kept in jail in the meantime, and tiring of confinement, he supposing he was to be allowed to go free as a state's witness, retracted his statement, and pretended to know nothing whatever of the murder.

Many perrons who had from the first regarded Smith's story as improbable, were more convinced than ever that he was the principal in the murder, and he was sentenced to be electrocuted with the others.

The quartette were finally taken to Richmond, where Smith was executed, but Governor Mann mitigated the punishment of the others to life terms in the penitentiary.

While it seems certain the authorities succeeded in bringing the guilty parties to justice, there are many details in regard to Schultz's murder which have never been explained.

Special "Health Warning" For March.

March is a trying month for very young and for elderly people. Croup, bronchial colds, lagrippe, and pneumonia are to be feared and avoided. Foley's Honey and Tar is a great family medicine that will stop a cough check the progress of a cold, and relieve inflamable and congested air passages. E. C. Rhodes, Middletown Ga., says: "Lagrippe gave me a hacking cough for which I got no relief until I took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and was soon well of both cough and cold." E. S. ANOTHER DAMAGE SUIT

Herbert Hansborough Claims $3,000 for Injury Received at Potomac Yards

The Circuit Court of Alexandria City, with Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of Manassas, presiding, will be in session tomorrow when the suit of Herbert H. Hansborough, of this city, against the Washington and Southern Railway Company, will be commenced before a special jury.

The suit was originally fled in the Circuit Court of Alexandria county and was removed to this jurisdiction. Hansborough was employe in the Potomac yards, near here, when he was injured by having a piano which he was assisting in removing, fall upon him. His right leg was broken and he was internally injured. He claims that the fall of the piano was due to the defect in the truck on which it was being carried. He asks $3,000 damages.

Hansborough is represented by D. Brumback and the Washington-Southern Railway by Col. Francis L. Smith.

PLANS FOR NEW EDIFICE.

Members of Local Baptist Church Approve Plans For Structure.

Plans for the new edifice of the Second Baptist Church have been approved and work will be commenced the latter part of this month. The plans will be submitted to bidders next week. The building will cost approximately $10,000 and will be constructed of cement blocks. It will be two stories in heighth, and 40 x 80 feet in size. On the first floor will be the Sunday School rooms and on the second the main auditorium which will seat 600 people. It will be built at the northeast corner of King and Peyton streets. The Rev. O. W. Triplett pastor of the church, has purchased the concrete residence adjoining the site which he will use as a parsonage.

FUNERALS.

Funeral services for Edward F. Berry who died in Washington were held this afternoon from Wheatley's Chapel. Services were conducted by the Rev. H. P. Hosley and the Rev. Alfred Barrows.

The funeral of John Miller was held this afternoon from his home in Del Ray.

The funeral of Thomas D. Downey, an employe of the Washington Navy Yard, took place this morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

GIVES GUSTAVE $1,500.

A jury in the Circuit Court yesterday awarded Entichy Foresuch, alias Tony Gustave, $1,500 for personal damages caused by an engine of the Southern Railway Company, which struck him. Col. Francis L. Smith, attorney for the company, asked that the verdict be set aside and a new trial granted. Judge Thornton will hand a decision on this point tomorrow.

The Wizard Triangle Polish Mop Gets Into the Most Difficult Places

It is the original scientifically shaped mop—the triangle shape, that will thoroughly clean behind the doors, over doors, corners in the hallway, or room back of the piano, under beds and tables, under the radiator.

Has the adjustable handle like a human elbow that swings around to just the right angle for any cleaning requirement, whether it be on the ceiling, side wall, floor, corner, door, or window frame. It saves you side-stepping and tiresome reaching.

It has 11,154 cord fingers of clean, first quality cotton, that pick up the dirt, and at the same time afford a fine polish.

The 54-inch handle reaches everywhere no stooping, kneeling, stretching, and standing on chairs.

The frame is padded so that the furniture and woo work is protected from marring.

It has a big spread, cleaning quickly—8-8-8 inches. Weighs only 2 pounds six ounces and is perfectly balanced.

Retains all the dirt it gathers up until shaken out. Easily washed with soap and water.

We are now demonstrating this fine Mop, that no housewife should be without, in our Housefurnishing Department, Fifth Floor, F Street, Price..... $1.50

This Mop may also be obtained in chemically treated form, especially adapted for use on wax floors; washed without injury.

IGHER TAX RATE.

art's Opinion Based n Investigation.

March 6.—Increase in ate taxation at the al Assembly which, its ion, was confident the rat uld be easily reduced, will be necessity if the general appropriation bill should be enacted into law in its present form. This is understood to be the conviction of Governor Stuart, after an examination into the fiscal condition of the Commonwealth and consideration of the proposed appropriations.

Including the special bills, passed, the expenditure, it is certain, will wipe out the present surplus of $330,000 and create a deficit that can be met only by an increase in the tax rate.

SHIP DOCKED FOR SURVEY.

British Steamer Riversdale at Newport News to be Repaired.

Newport News, Va., March 6.—Her rudder gone, her propeller damaged and a bad leak in her hull near the stern, the British steamer Riversdale, which was ashore for ten days near Little Island, south of Cape Henry, arrived here yesterday, having been floated Tuesday night, and was docked for a survey.

That several of the plates on the ship's hull are sprung is indicated by the nature of the leak, but the full extent of the damage will not be determined until a survey has been completed.

The Riversdale came here in tow of the wrecking tug, I J. Merritt, which floated her.

May Help You if Lungs Are Affected

Proper diet, fresh air and temperate habits are beneficial to persons suffering from Lung Trouble; but in a great many instances reports show that the addition of a medicine for this affection has materially helped in bringing about recovery. For more than fifteen years Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles, has accomplished good results. Read what it did in this case:—

Madison Lake, Minn.

"Gentlemen: In December, 1908, March, 1909, and September, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs which confined me several weeks, each time to my bed. My doctor advised me to go West. In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alterative. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 185, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alterative for my health."

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for Severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

DROP STATUE APPROPRIATION

House Omits Item for Gift of Washington Shaft to Britain.

Richmond, Va., March 6.—In an effort to cut down the general appropriation bill the House of Delegates last night struck out an item to cover the expense of a bronze copy of Houdon's statue of Washington, which the legislature, by joint resolution, has offered to present to Great Britain.

At the morning session the House received a letter, under date of March 3, signed by John Bassett Moore, as counselor of the State Department, in which it was stated that Ambassador Page had cabled that the British secretary of State for foreign affairs had conveyed to him orally the appreciative acceptance by the prime minister of Virginia's gift. Ambassador Page added that written acceptance would be made when the British government is officially advised through the department at Washington.

It was explained, after the house adjourned, that the item had been eliminated because of confusion and a misunderstanding, and that it would be put back in the appropriation bill today.

MOSBY AND CODY.

Two Colonels Met for First Time Through Newspaper Reporter.

Staunton, Va., March 6.—Colonel John S. Mosby was in the New Willard Hotel at Washington several days ago. He approached Louis Brownlow, a Tennessee newspaper man. In a chair a few feet away lounged Colonel William F. Cody ("Buffalo Bill.")

"Isn't that "Buffalo Bill" inquired Colonel Mosby. Brownlow said it was, whereupon Colonel Mosby asked that the Tennessee man introduce him.

"I don't know Colonel Cody very well, but I know him well enough to introduce two good American fighters," said Brownlow, and he led the old Confederate over to where Colonel Cody sat.

"Colonel Cody, I want you to meet Colonel Mosby. No doubt you have heard of him, and he certainly has heard of you."

"Colonel Cody," said Colonel Mosby, "let's you and I go up to the White House together and tell President Wilson that if he will give us each a commission we'll go down into Mexico and settle that little difficulty."

"I believe we could; I believe we could," returned Colonel Cody.

TROUBLE IN COLORED CHURCH

Parishioners Are Locked Out When They Interfere With Pastor.

Richmond, March 6.—A church padlocked against its fold is the story written in the sheaves of a petition for a receiver for the Fountain Baptist Church (colored,) located at Thirty-first and O streets, and for an injunction against the pastor, the Rev. Hugh R. Williams, filed Wednesday in the Chancery Court by Daniel Allen and a large delegation from the original flock. It is recited in the paper that the pastor has run the church to suit his fancy, and it is openly stated that the petitioners believe him to have converted to his personal profit the finances contributed weekly by the faithful. The complainants, it is alleged, constitute a majority of the fold, and they tell a long story of how they have attempted to follow the tenets of their faith, and to conduct the church according to Baptist principals, but have ever been prevented by the pulpiteer.

The petition narrates that the Rev. Hugh R. Williams has been pastor of the Fountain Baptist Church for some years, and that up to April 17, 1911, he handled all the funds of the church to suit himself. On that date, the paper continues, the congregation adopted a resolution that all the money be turned over to the treasurer, and that all moneys be paid out over the signature of the clerk, the order to be signed then by the pastor. This order was obeyed until August, 1913, when the pastor refused to sign an order, because the organist has not been paid it full.

The congregation then adopted another resolution, to the effect that the clerk should hold all papers and documents, and use the seal of the church instead of the pastor's signature in making out orders for payments. The pastor, it is alleged, refused to attend these congregational meetings, and on January 5 called a special meeting of his adherents and expelled several of the plaintiffs, among them being the sexton, eleven deacons and seven ushers. Then he and his cohorts elected other officers, and re-elected the old organist, one Matilda J. Holmes.

On January 7, 1914, prayer meeting night, the plaintiffs were dismayed to find that some of the doors had been padlocked and others nailed up, so that they could not gain entrance to the church. Rather than create further disturbance or violate the peace, they went outside to worship.

INCREASE OF TAX RATE IMMINENT.

It appears that notwithstanding the close collection of taxes during the past year or two by the State Auditor, who has insisted upon enforcing the law to the letter, and also the fact that about a quarter of a million dollars surplus was found to be in the State Treasury, there is a likelihood of an increase of state taxation should the pruning knife not be operated judiciously by the General Assembly.

It seems that no matter how much money a state or municipality may collect, the expenditures always exceed receipts, and the tax payer may dream year after year of lesser burdens without ever being able to realize such a desideratum.

There has for some time been a growing discontent concerning the colossal sums of money expended by the State of Virginia. The public generally receive but little encouragement after making honest returns and paying their assessments. Alexandria has for many pears paid her quota and has virtually received nothing in the way of returns from the state. At one time it was even proposed to list the city hall and gas works for taxation by the State.

The announcement that taxes are about to be increased has sent an additional chill down the backs of people throughout the commonwealth, and comment concerning the creation of offices, believed by many to be useless, is again heard. The meeting of the State legislature has for a long time been dreaded. There is always more or less cause of apprehension.

PRESIDENT AND CANAL TOLLS.

Most of the representative people of the country are commenting in conservative tones on the message of President Wilson which he read to Congress yesterday in which he recommended the repeal of the exemption of American vessels from tolls in the Panama Canal. While this is contrary to the democratic platform upon which he was elected, it is generally believed the executive has acted in the interests of the country and Congrss will doutbless sustain him.

We prefer to believe that he would not have gone counter to the platform of his party had he not seen that the exemption of American vessels from tolls would have caused coolness, if nothing more, among nations which have ever backed the United States in its most important movements.

Members of the democratic party who regard convention platforms as sacred and unalterable productions, may, from the first, look upon the President as an iconoclast, will eventually realize the wisdom he has shown. It is old adage, "Wise men change their opinions, fools never," and in the discussions now in progress, this saying is in order.

The London papers, as usual, flying at every conclusion, think they see a back down on the part of the United States, and that the President has some anxiety lest Japan might give the country trouble at a time when coolness exists between the two great English-speaking races.

The writers on these papers are not behind the scenes and their utterances should not be taken seriously.

RICH LUMBERMAN SLAIN.

Evidently Robbed of Valuables and Thrown on Railroad.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 6.—It is believed here that William Balliet, aged 39 years, a wealthy lumberman of Conyngham, whose mangled body was found alongside of the Lackawanna tracks early yesterday morning was murdered for his valuables, as he was known to have at least $200 on his person when last seen, shortly after 8 o'clock Wednesday night. When the body was found this morning the money was missing, as was also a valuable gold watch and chain.

Mr. Balliet owned extensive tracts of lumber in the vicinity of Conyngham. He left home yesterday morning to go to Hazelton and, later, transacting business there, he went to Shickshinny, where he spent the afternoon and early evening. About 8 o'clock he started to Pond Hill to visit his father-in-law, Leonard M. Ross, and that was the last seen of him alive.

It is the belief of the officials that Balliet was followed by some person or persons who knew he had valuables in his possession, assaulted him and left his body lying on the track. He is survived by a wife and one daughter.

GIRL BLINDED BY FALL.

Eyeglasses Broke as She Stumbled and Pieces Pierced Eyeballs.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 6.—Her eyes pierced by pieces of glass, Ollie Robinson, 17 years old, of No. 1546 Warfield street, will probably lose her sight as the result of an attack of vertigo she suffered last night near 20th and Spruce streets. When she fell to the pavement her eyeglasses broke and small particles of the glass were forced into each eyeball. She was taken to the Polyclinic Hospital, where the physicians are attempting to save her vision.

DON'T OVERLOOK THIS.

A Careful Perusal Will Prove Its Value to Every Alexandria Reader.

The average man is a doubter, and there is little wonder that he is so. Misrepresentations make people skeptics. Now-a-days the public ask for better evidence than the testimony of strangers. Here is proof which should convince every Alexandria reader.

Miss Harriett Johnson, 207 Queen street, Alexandria, Va., says: "For two years I had a lot of trouble from my back. As long as I kept still I got along all right, but as soon as I began to work I was bothered terribly by back ache. A neighbor gave me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Leadbeater & Son's drug store, and they cured me. I have had no symptoms of kidney complaint during the past few years. I willingly confirm my former endorsement."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Miss Johnson had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"When your back is lame—Remember the Name." (22)

Backache and Rheumatism Vanish Away.

Men and women having headache, rheumatism, stiff and swollen joints, are honestly glad to know that Foley's Kidney Pills are successful everywhere in driving out these ills. That is because Foley's Kidney Pills are a true medicine and quickly effective in all diseases that result from weak, inactive kidneys and urinary irregularities. Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havanna, Fla., writes: "I suffered intense pain in kidneys and back but after taking Foley's Kidney Pills all my pains disappeared and tho' I am 55 years old I feel like a young man again." Madeline Fillingame.
IN CHANCERY.

Upon the application of the complainant, stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the court on this 28th day of January, 1914, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant, a divorce from the bonds of matrimony from the defendant on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment, and for general relief. An affidavit having been made and filed that the said defendant, Madeline Fillingame has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and that she is not a resident of the said state, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen days after due publication, and do what is necessary to protect her interests in this suit.

It is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said City, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered; and that a copy of the said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court addressed to the said Madeline Fillingame, at No. 637 Sixth St., Northeast, Washington, D. C., her last known place of abode.

NEWS OF THE DAY

A perceptible eartquake shock was felt at Atlanta, Ga., a few minutes after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The tremors continued for seven minutes. There was no damage to the city. The shock also was felt at Athens and other Georgia towns. Dishes and pictures were shaken down and many persons were frightened badly. Tremors of the earthquake lasting twenty seconds were felt at Jackson, Ga., shortly after 3 o'clock. The shock was the most violent since 1886. Buildings rocked and the shock caused considerable excitement.

Ill-feeling of several years duration is said to have been the cause of the killing of John M. Zoelhoffner, a newspaper publisher, by Frank Dunkin, on a street in Leroy, near Bloomington, Ill., Wednesday afternoon. After he shot Zoelhoffner, Dunkin gave himself up to the town marshal and was brought here to the county jail. Several years ago Dunkin was employed in Zoelhoffner's office. The ill-feeling between the men is said to have dated from that time.

A frail school girl of 15 years, tottered to the rail in the prisoner's dock in the Chelsea, Mass court, Tuesday, and trembling with fear heard the clerk read, "You are charged with the murder of your own child." The school girl, Mary Theresa Raynard, in the graduating class of the McKinley Grammar School, of Revere, is the youngest girl ever arraigned in Massachusetts on a murder charge.

John Mahan, a business man, shot and killed Bernie Stiles, keeper of a gambling house in Memphis, late yesterday. Mahan, who surrendered to the police, said Stiles had cheated him.

The Brazilian government authorities have proclaimed a state of siege in the cities of Rio Janeiro, Nitcheroy, and Petropolis. This is to remain in force until March 31. The government's action is taken as a preventive measure against any possible troubles. Disturbances were feared from certain elements of the population as a result of the recent insurrection in the province of Ceara, where the situation is worse.

Seventeen Austrian soldiers were killed yesterday by an avalanche. They were engaged in maneuvers on the Ortler mountain in the Tyrol.

William Cheney Ellis, was found guilty yesterday of murdernig his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Hosea Ellis, last October, in a Chicago hotel. Punishment was fixed at imprisonment in the State penitentiary for fifteen years. Ellis claimed that he had been driven to mania by knowledge that his wife was lost to him and had given her love to Fred G .Caulcwell, of Brantford, Ont. Ellis killed his wife October 16, 1913. He is 47 years old. When found with the corpse Ellis appeared dazed. He had slightly gashed his own wrists and throat. He at first declared the tragedy was the result of a suicide agreement.

A robber last night looted the mail car of Southern Railway train No. 1, Charleston to Columbia, just as the train reached Columbia, S. C. The robber looted several sacks containing registered mail.

FORGETS MOTHER TONGUE.

German Victim of Kidnapers in California Presents Rare Case of Aphasia.

San Bernardino, Cal., March 6.—Although German is his native tongue, Mitchael Haitsch, who is supposed to have been thrown into a state of mental paralysis by fright or the tortures of kidnapers, demonstrated yesterday that he had forgotten all about it.

A letter came from Haitsch's sister Mrs. Martha Kunsch, who is now in Danbury, Conn. It bore a photograph of Haitsch, which positively identified the man. The text of the letter was in German, and Haitsch, who has been in a hospital here for several weeks, relearning to walk and talk, indicated that he did not know such a language existed.

Haitsch was found here last month, a few days after the police of Los Angeles received notice from Mrs. Kunsch that kidnapers had demanded $200 ransom for her brother. Hospital surgeons say Haitsch presents one of the rare cases of real aphasia, or loss of memory. This condition, they declare, was induced by fright or torture. The man now is learning to speak English, but he remembers nothing of his life before he was found staggering in the postoffice of this city.

We Promise You Relief from All Stomach Troubles Or Your Money Back

We honestly believe we have the best remedy in the world for indigestion and dyspepsia. We urge you to try it at our risk. If it doesn't relieve you—as we feel sure it will—we'll give back your money without a word. You know us—your family druggist. You know we wouldn't dare recommend anything we didn't know about, nor dare to break a promise. Therefore, when we recommend any remedy it is because we believe it to be better than any other to relieve the ailment for which it is made, and when we prove our faith in it and our sincerity toward you by promising to give back your money if it doesn't relieve you and in every way satisfy you, you have no possible excuse for doubt or hesitation.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

are, we honestly believe, the best remedy made for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all other Stomach Ills

We Know They're Good

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, in addition to other ingredients, contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two great digestive aids used by the entire medical profession. They soothe the inflamed stomach, check the heartburn and distress, stimulate a healthy secretion of the gastric juice, aid in rapid and comfortable digestion of the food and help to quickly convert it into rich red blood, and thereby into flesh, bone and muscle. They relieve stomach distress promptly, and, used regularly for a short time, tend to restore the stomach to a comfortable, easy-acting, healthy state. They aid greatly to promote regular bowel action.

Delays Are Dangerous

Don't neglect indigestion, for it frequently leads to all sorts of ills and complications. The pain and discomfort is not the most unfortunate part. The fact that when the stomach is not acting right, the material needed to repair the wastes that are constantly taking place in the body is not being given to the blood either in the proper condition or fast enough is far more serious. Nothing will cause more trouble than an unhealthy stomach. The blues, debility, lack of strength and energy, constipation, biliousness, headaches and scores of other serious ailments result from the failure of the stomach to properly do its work.

You Risk No Money

Our willingness to have you use Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets entirely at our risk proves our faith in them. We always sell them this way, and it is because we know that they have greatly benefited scores of sufferers to whom we have sold them. There's no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. You needn't sign anything. Your word is enough for us. We know that when they help you you will consider it money well spent even if they had cost you ten times as much. If they don't help you, the money you paid for them is yours, and we want you to have it.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores—the World's Greatest Drug Stores. In convenient boxes—three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1.00

Ordell Johnston,
Vs.
Joseph Johnston.
IN CHANCERY

Upon application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 7th day of February, 1914, doth grant the following order of publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bonds of matrimony from the defendant on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and for general relief. An affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant Joseph Johnston, has not been found within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and is not a resident of the State; it is ordered, that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the court House of the said city, on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of the said order of publication be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non-resident defendant, at Barracks, Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.

WANTS MEMORIAL TO LEE.

Senator Maloy Offers Bill to Perpetuate Baltimore Home of Family.

Annapolis, Md., March 6.—Reviving the movement which was started in 1907 to purchase the property at 908 Madison Avenue, Baltimore, in which General Robert E. Lee and his family lived when he was stationed in that city during the early fifties, and preserve is as a memorial to the great Confederate leader, Senator Molay has introduced a bill appropriating $5,000 to cover a portion of the expense.

The appropriation is not to become available until an equal amount of money has been raised by private subscription, when the property will be purchased and improved in accordance with the plans of the Isaac R. Trimble Camp, No. 1025, of the United Confederate Veterans, and the Baltimore Chapter, No. 8, of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Shortly after the movement to acquire this property was started an option was secured on the property Thereafter came the panicky conditions of 1907 and the option was allowed to expire. Should the present attempt to secure possession of the property prove sucessful it will thereafter be known as the Lee Centennial Memorial.

MERCHANT MURDERED.

Implicates Four Others in Murder of Preston Lyerly.

Greensboro, N. C., March 6.—Sid Finger, a negro arrsed in Rowan county, N. C., charged with the murder of Preston Lyerly at Barber Junction on the evening of February 24, when a store in which Lyerly clerked was burned and the body almost cremated, has been brought here for safe keeping.

Finger when arrested stoutly maintained his innocence, although the keys, watch and other articles identified as belonging to Lyerly, were found in Finger's possession.

While here Finger is alleged to have made a confession to officers and newspapermen in which he implicated four other negroes, alleging, according to his reputed confession, that one of his companions actually fired the shot that killed Lyerly. That he and four other negroes went to Lyerly's store and called Lyerly to the door, saying that they wanted to buy some chickens. As soon as Lyerly opened the door, Finger is reputed to have said, a negro named Will (last name Finger does not know), shot Lyerly. The party then proceeded to rifle the body and the safe and set fire to the oil tank. Officers stated last night that they had two more of the party where they could lay hands upon them and that all of the five men alleged to be implicated in the murder would be in custody by tomorrow.

KISSES REWARD FOR $38,000.

Emigrants Overwhelm Station Master Who Finds Sack of Money.

New York, March 6.—Expressions of gratitude in the form of kisses were showered upon William H. Egan, station master of the Pennsylvania Railroad here, Wednesday night by the 27 men and women members of an emigrant band because he had been instrumental in restoring to them a flour sack which contained $3,800 in gold and bills.

The party, on the way from Montana to Poland, dined in the station and then started for the pier to board the steamship Olympic. In her haste the wife of the leader of the band, to whom her fellow-travelers had intrusted their money, left the bag in a waiting room, where it was found by an attendant and turned over to Egan.

Its contents had hardly been counted when the emigrants rushed back in great excitement clamoring for their money.

When they learned that every dollar of the $38,000 was intact they made a rush for Egan. He did not take kindly to kissing at first, it is said, but yielded as a matter of courtesy.

SHE DIES TO SAVE FLAG.

Woman Plunges From Window, Breaking Her Skull.

Lancaster, Pa., March 6—Miss Margaret Haller, 40 years old, lost her life in trying to save a small American flag. She was on the third floor of her home doing housework, and her 6-year-old nephew was in the room with her, near an open window. He dropped the flag out, she grapped for it, lost her balance and fell to the pavement. Her skull was crushed and she died twenty minutes later.

STORM SIGNALS ARE SET.

Conditions About Same as Before Most Recent Blow.

Storm signals all along the Atlantic seaboard from New York to Wilmington, N. C., show what the United States Weather Bureau thinks of the immediate prospects for weather. At the Weather Bureau it was stated last night that, except for the warmer temperature the conditions are much the same as they were preceding the storm of last Sunday and Monday.

There was a severe storm in progress in Alabama and another to the north of Baltimore, with northeast winds last night. If the wind continues in the same quarter the storm is said to be apt to strike this vicinity and may increase in intensity as it travels. Officially the bureau keeps on the side of safety with the prediction of rain or snow for today, with the thermometer about the same.

The thermometer traveled up to 38 degrees at noon yesterday and back to 31 degrees at 8 o'clock in the evening, and snow fell from mid-afternoon well into the night.

The wind was not severe nor the cold intense.

ANOTHER HANG-FIRE.

Virginians Are to go to Court Again Over Old Bonds.

Washington, March 6.—After an all day session discussing exchanges of proposals the Virginia and West Virginia debt commissions failed Wednesday to reach any settlement regarding the $30,000,000 Virginia debt. The West Virginia commission, claiming its State had received no benefit from this debt, offered as its share in a final settlement, $2,327,195,28. On receivnig this proposition the Virginia commissioners immediately convened in another room at the New Willard Hotel, and adopted a resolution in which the offer of the West Virginia commission was rejected.

The Virginia commissioners directed attention to the decision rendered by the United States Supreme Court on November 10, 1913, in which West Virginia's liabilities are placed at $7,182,507,46, and insisted upon this amount being paid. Before taking a final adjournment the West Virginians sent a resolution to the Virginia commission expressing regret over the failure to reach an agreement. April 13 has been set by the Supreme Court as the last day upon which some settlement must be made. At that time the Virginia legislature will probably ask for a correction of clerical errors in the decision in order that the State may proceed to collect judgments. West Virginia will appear before the court seeking a new rehearing, and presenting further arguments

YOU'LL CROW OVER 'GETS-IT" FOR CORNS. !

It Will Startle You How "GETS-IT" Gets Corns Every Time.

"One, two, three!" That's about as long as it takes you to apply "GETS-It" the new-plan, simplest, surest, corn cure the world has ever seen.

"This Is No Place For a Crow. Her Corns Are All Gone. She Must Have Used 'GETS-IT.'"

Corn fussing is all over. Corns, corn pains and calluses are absolutely done for, from the minute you apply "GETS-IT". Forget the bother of useless plasters, greasy salves that spread and make toes sore and raw, little doughnut cotton rings that press on corns, forget knives, razors, scissors, and the dangers of blood poison from drawing blood and the contraptions and harness that simply make corns worse. "GETS-IT" never hurts the flesh, never fails.

"GETS-IT" is sold by all druggists, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.
